

TERRY LEWIS APPOINTED TO STATE MENTAL HEALTH PLANNING COUNCIL

In December, Terry Lewis, Executive Director of the Los Angeles County Mental Health Commission, was appointed to the California Mental Health Planning Council within the Family Member category.

The Council is part of the State of California's Health and Human Services Agency, Department of Health Care Services. The Sacramento-based Council is committed to its responsibility in advocating for persons with serious mental illness and children with serious emotional disturbances; advising the Department and the Legislature on mental health issues and priorities; and helping the Department in its planning, oversight and monitoring efforts.

Her appointment to the Council also includes serving on one of the Council's three committees: Health Care Reform, Continuous System Improvement and Advocacy.
